Category 1 - House Plants

All plants in dirt are considered potted/house plants. Container not judged.

Category 2 - Specimens

Each entry must have only 1 large or 3 small blooms or spikes with attached leaf or leaves in a small bottle or vase. Small flowers such as miniature marigold, petunia, etc. may be in a small container with oasis. Container not judged.

Category 3 - Arrangements

The quality of the flowers, artistic arrangement, and suitability of container will be considered in judging.

Category 4 - Garden Produce

Made with one or more garden produce.

Flower Show Tips

Be sure to wash your specimen to remove mud or dirt splatters.

Brush off grass clippings.

Clean off water spots.

Take off any parts of the specimen that are dry and browned or insect damaged.

Remove any leaves that are below the water level of the container in which it is shown.

Where three specimens are required for a class, choose specimens that are as nearly alike in size, color, and shape as possible.

Correct identification of your specimens is a must! If it is entered in the incorrect class you will be disqualified.

Save your tags when you buy your plant if it is a new variety.

Ask your local greenhouse or garden center for help if needed, or use the internet or public library.
